

I DON'T WANT YOU TO LOVE ME

©Kellylee Evans (Sept 3, 2002)

Tell me you love me, you'll never convince me
You don't know what love is, you'll only leave me

Though your smile brings light to even the sunniest day
Your eyes see past my attempts to elude you

I know I'm not meant to feel passion this way
Just as I know that you won't stay

Chorus

I don't want you love me no, no
I can't handle the thought that you would go
It's easier if we cut these ties
That bind, ever tightening, as days go by
This may come as a surprise
I don't want you to love me, goodbye

Don't think of this as a fear to commit
My therapist said there'd be days like this

Though it seemed that our love would grow stronger each day
It did, but I fear this attachment to you

I know I'm not meant to feel passion this way
Just as I know that you won't stay

Chorus

I don't want you love me no, no
I can't handle the thought that you would go
It's easier if we cut these ties
That bind, ever tightening, as days go by
This may come as a surprise
I don't want you to love me, goodbye

Bridge

If you only knew
I'd disappoint you
I can't sustain
Your devotion, this emotion

Scares me
Leaves me confused
I can't
Accept this love from you

Don't blame me
For feeling this way

Chorus

I don't want you love me no, no
I can't handle the thought that you would go

It's easier if we cut these ties
That bind, ever tightening, as days go by
This may come as a surprise
I don't want you to love me
I don't want you
I don't want you
I don't want you to love me, goodbye

WHAT ABOUT ME

©Kellylee Evans, Oct. 16, 2003

She thought she had a good one
He seemed like the right one
But who knew?
Everybody knew
That he was not, he was not as he seemed

She was gonna have a baby
Then they would get married
Or so he said
At least that's what she heard
But he had been, he had been very busy

CHORUS

"Who's she?
Who's he?
Is that your family?"

Who's she?
Who's he?
What about me?"

Now she's gotta make a change
Her plans have been rearranged
But she'll survive
There's no other way
Cause life has no plans of passing her by

And that baby's gonna grow to know
It was he who chose to go
But she'll survive
There's no other way
Though her life began, it began with a lie

CHORUS

BRIDGE

All the stories that he told her
Were simply meant to hold her
To fulfill his needs

Now its time that they break up
Imagine he would try to make up
When he has two families

HOOKED

©Kellylee Evans, October 12, 2003

Softly, slowly, I'm dipping into you
Can't eat, can't sleep, you're wicked brew
I'm hooked, so hooked to you

Like a river, it's washing over me
Twisting, turning, like a ship at sea
I'm hooked, so hooked to you

These old clichés, keep emerging from this state I'm in
When I'm gliding, flying this high
There's no race I can't win
No mountain I can't climb
This is all so sublime
Being hooked, so hooked to you

SOLOS

These old clichés, keep emerging from this state I'm in
When I'm gliding, flying this high
There's no race I can't win
No mountain I can't climb
This is all so sublime
Being hooked, so hooked to you

Maybe tomorrow, I'll rethink this mood
But tonight I'll slip deeper into you
I'm hooked, so hooked to you

HELP ME HELP YOU (Fight or Flight?)
©Kellylee Evans, October 27, 2003

Fight or flight
I don't know what's wrong or right
Maybe I should curl up in my shell

Stay or go
There's no easy way to know
Cause what you're going through looks like it might be hell

PRECHORUS
Don't wanna get involved
It's too big for me to solve
There must be somebody else
I'm busy worryin' 'bout myself

CHORUS
Help me help you
Although I'm not sure I want to
Teach me to know
Show me which way to go

Help me help you
Lead me into your darkness
Help me help you
Although I'm afraid

Though I have a degree
I'm trapped by apathy
The solutions all get wrapped up in my head

I choose someone else to think
These decisions are too big
And though I know it's wrong, I'd rather hide instead

PRECHORUS
It's easy for you to say to stay
It's you that's in trouble today
It's not that bad here on this fence
I've got the company of my friends

CHORUS

BRIDGE

I got my life and lately it's been pulling in
Would you be there for me when my troubles begin?

I know it's not the right way to be
You're in need, I pretend not to know about it

Don't blame me

Look at them
They're scared too

CHORUS

Fight or flight, I don't know what's wrong or right

WHO KNOWS?

© Kellylee Evans (Sept. 4, 2002, Oct. 3, 2003)

Sometimes I lose my perspective
Don't know which path to choose
Emotions get erratic
And I think I'm gonna lose

My place in the cosmos
Where I roar and where I reign
Free from all the critics
Where I suffer no pain

But the fury leads to wonder
As I reach epiphany
Paths that seem unlikely
Start to call out to me

To jump, don't look back
Take a chance, don't fear to lose
Seek what you long for
It's yours to choose

Chorus

So who knows?
Who knows what tomorrow will bring for me
Who knows?
Who knows where the door will lead

Who knows?
Who knows, but the answer will come
I know
It's a new day under this sun

Now as I enlighten folks
On my newfound goals
They seem to wonder
If my life will truly hold these dreams

Tried so hard to build
A world they understand
But I lost the battle
Couldn't meet the demand

To risk giving up
My pursuit of perfection
Attempt
To delay the perceived rejection

Which comes when I try
To ensure another's comfort
So now I live for myself

I always come first

Chorus

Bridge

You've come a long way baby
Just admit you're scared
Don't momentum someday
You'll get there

So if you're wondering what to do
When defeat captures you
You debate giving in
Cause you only like to win

My friend

Life's a game you can't help but play
And the only way to win
Is to start today

Chorus

I Don't Think I Want to Know
© Kellylee Evans, April 8, 2003

Last night, tossed and turned
Thinking about you
Couldn't sleep, failed to eat
Wondering what to do

You said, never to fear
That I always could trust you
But it was your lies, your eyes
Tonight I saw through

Chorus

But, I don't think I want to know
I don't think I want to know
I don't want you to go
I just don't want to know

For now, I will pretend
That there's only me and you
And the time we spent apart
Hurts you too

But deep down, I really know
That it's all an illusion
I'm just not prepared to be alone
And so this collusion

Chorus

Bridge

Don't say she meant nothing
Don't say it was not about me
Cause after last night
Nothing you say I'll ever believe

Don't lie to appease me
I don't need your pity
Just ask me to forgive you
And maybe, I won't ask you to leave

Solos/Bridge/Chorus to end

Let's Call a Truce Tonight

© Kellylee Evans, March 19, 2003, Nov. 20,2003

I've got so much love to give
So, tonight I'll be sweet to you
And if you mind what you say
I can show you forgiveness in my own special way

But you're testing me boy
Pushing me to leave
We're not going make it baby
If we can't be in love at the same time
I can learn to be kind

Chorus

Let's call a truce tonight
Let's not argue, fuss or fight
Let's call a truce tonight
And be in love at the same
Can you be mine

Just tonight

We've been fighting for so long
We never seem to sing the same song
After a quick apology
We get set up for round three

You're testing me boy
Pushing me to leave
We're not going make it baby
If we can't be in love at the same time
I can learn to be kind

Chorus

Bridge

Come show me affection
Not rejection
Let's not nurture/feed this addiction
To a conflict we can't survive

Walk in this direction
No need for perfection
Just tonight, just tonight
Can you make me feel alive?

Chorus

Our love used to be so grand
We both seemed to understand
All these emotions, love potions

Just weren't necessary

But tonight, I need your touch
I want to feel just how much
I've been missing all this time
Give me one more chance to shine

Chorus

RAPUNZEL

©Kellylee Evans, Oct. 5 and Oct. 24 2003

Skin as white as the new moon
Eyes that reflect the sky blue
Nose as straight the CN Tower
Men that flock to me hour by hour

Legs as thin as a birch tree
Back as flat as a TV screen
Hair as lush as a lion's mane
I know how to drive you insane

PRE CHORUS

I know you see me
You want to be me

It's now or never
Your life would be better
Better as me

Just call me Rapunzel, RAPUNZEL
Rapunzel, Rapunzel, I'm everywhere you look
Rapunzel, Rapunzel, my style is so textbook

Just call me Rapunzel, RAPUNZEL
Rapunzel, Rapunzel, I'll sweep you away
Rapunzel, Rapunzel, become me today

Lips as full as two pillows
Teeth as bright as a star's glow
Breasts as ripe as a watermelon
Just one look/kiss can turn men to felons

CHORUS

BRIDGE

Try and run from me you'll never lose me
I am at the centre of all fantasies
Just you wait and see how tempting I can be
I'm the epitome of real beauty

With skin as white as the new moon
And eyes that reflect the sky blue
Hair as lush as a lion's mane
Don't I know how to drive insane

HOW CAN YOU GET ALONG WITHOUT ME?
Kellylee Evans, Aug 31, Sept 1, 2003.

You don't call me anymore
Just as I planned
Finally I can be alone
This relationship was getting out of hand

PRECHORUS

But the nights are cold without you
Not a day goes by that I don't dream about you

CHORUS

How can you get along without me
How dare you love again
Who is she?

How can you get along without me
When I still need you
I still need you
I still need you

So let's just say that I misspoke
Let's start love again
We can pretend it was all a joke
You can get rid of your new friend

PRECHORUS

But the nights are cold without you
Not a day goes by that I don't dream about you

CHORUS

How can you get along without me
How dare you love again
Who is she?

How can you get along without me
When I still need you
I still need you
I still need you

BRIDGE

I'll be so soft, I'll be so sweet
You won't recognize me

Can you ignore what I said last week
You always said that I was crazy, crazy, crazy

I'm crazy about you baby

ENOUGH

©Kellylee Evans, September 29, 2002

Was never light enough
Hair on my head never straight enough
Certainly I wasn't white enough
Not enough to impress you

Never ran quite fast enough
Grades I brought home never high enough
So certainly I wasn't bright enough
Not enough to impress you

So tell me what are you looking for?
Give me some idea so I can win your love

Chorus

More, more
They keep asking for more, more
Tell me when should I let them
Know I've had enough?
You know, I've had enough

He is not good enough
The money he makes isn't quite enough
Certainly he's not like you enough
Not enough to impress you

This award's not big enough
My achievement is not grand enough
So certainly you can't brag enough
Not enough to impress them

Pre-Chorus

Bridge

I've got so much to give ask anyone else around here
This is my life to live. You'll have to plan your own

Chorus

I just don't care enough
My life's revolved around you enough
Certainly I know I'm worth enough
I just want to impress me
I just want to impress me

I've had enough

LEAD ME CLOSER

Kellylee Evans, March 2005

Spinning and spinning out of time
Slipping into this state of mind
Searching in silence without sight
Free falling with no sense of flight

Where are you? Where are you?

Lead me closer
Lead me, guide me
I'm afraid to lose control
Lead me closer
Till I'm sheltered in from the cold

Running on empty once again
Losing the space where I begin
Drifting though I'm anchored still I'm feeling your light, so I look within

Where are you? Where are you?

Lead me closer
Lead me, guide me
I'm afraid to lose control
Lead me closer
Till I'm sheltered in from the cold

Can't wait on six feet under
I need to know you now
In need of guidance
I'm falling won't you
Catch me 'fore I'm gone?

Lead me closer
Lead me, guide me
I'm afraid to lose control
Lead me closer
Till I'm sheltered in from cold
